Attached is the Judge's decision on the Red Carpet Inn case.

The property was declared a nuisance, and all parties were found to have maintained a nuisance.

The building will remain boarded-up until May 27th of 2015.

A complete victory.

This ruling is a direct result of the great work done by Det. Shaw and CLOs Clinger and Geis.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Special Commendation

presented to

Officer Karl Shaw

On June 12, 2013, the culmination of over a year and a half's work by Officer Karl Shaw, Officer Lawrence Geis, Officer Scott Clinger, Officer Eric Cornett, and Assistant City Attorney William Sperlazza resulted in the court-ordered closure of the Columbus Inn & Suites located on Zumstein Drive. The officers worked meticulously to document all of the criminal activity occurring and the individuals involved, secured and executed warrants, and seized drugs and firearms from within rooms. Mr. Sperlazza worked with the officers to advise them on how best to proceed to shut down the hotel using the nuisance abatement code and prepare for trial.

The officers and Mr. Sperlazza also helped the innocent residents who were displaced from the location to find alternative lodging and retrieve their belongings.

Officer Karl Shaw is awarded a Special Commendation for his diligence and dedication that resulted in the successful closure of a problem hotel. His actions reflect positively on him and the Columbus Division of Police.

NARRATIVE
Please give a brief, but detailed, description of the incident for which you are nominating the individual(s). Include any injuries, suspect/victim information, court case numbers, and any fire or other reports associated with the incident. On Wednesday, June 12, 2013 the Columbus Inn and Suites (CI&amp;S) located at 6121 Zumstein Drive was closed by court order after a year and a half of work by Officer's Shaw, Cornett, Geis and Clinger. Columbus Police had been dispatched to this hotel 497 times between January 1, 2012 and March 19, 2013. The above mentioned officers worked closely with Columbus City Attorney William Sperlazza in getting this court order to shut the motel down. Officer's Geis and Clinger provided the City Attorney with all the documentation needed for the court and made all the arrangements as well as going with the Fire Marshall's, Code Enforcement and Health Inspectors when they would come out to Columbus Inn and Suites to do their inspections. Officer's Geis and Clinger took the steps to set up the initial meeting with Mr. Sperlazza and SRB Enforcement Detectives Shaw and Cornett to discuss how to best proceed to shut down this problem location using the nuisance abatement code. Officer's Geis and Clinger would then act as a liaison between all the parties while this investigation was going on and also testified at the trial. Between Feb 21 2013 and May 30 2013 Detectives Shaw and Cornett went to the CI&amp;S at least 12 times. 9 of these resulted in direct buys of crack cocaine or heroin from within a room at the CI&amp;S. 3 of these were instances where Det. Shaw and Cornett had obtained warrants and executed them. The buys were extremely valuable to the case because (a) they came from inside rooms, not curtilage, (b) Det. Shaw was able to place himself in a hallway so as to observe some of the transactions. The warrant entries were valuable as well. On the first entry Detectives Shaw and Cornett seized a large amount of heroin as well as firearms--the occupants were also associated with specific gangs, which played well in court. The warrants were also valuable because they served as further proof of notice to the owner of what was going on at the hotel; twice a copy of the warrant was left with the owner himself, which really strengthens an important "notice" element of our case. Detectives Shaw and Cornett was also involved with the Human Trafficking Taskforce that resulted in the May 12 2012 arrest of 4 individuals for, among other things, Trafficking in Persons, at the CI&amp;S.

Detectives Shaw and Cornett also went above and beyond by meeting with Mr. Sperlazza, County prosecutors, potential lay witnesses around Franklin County and beyond, and with various investigators within CPD; including obtaining phone records and gang affiliation information. Detectives Shaw and Cornett were also great with the innocent "residents" who were displaced on the date when CI&S was closed down. Polite, professional, took names and contact info of people who were being screwed over by the owner by (a) not refunding those who were paid up through the month, and (b) not putting them up in his other crappy hotel next door that was nearly empty.

Then, a few people came to the hotel later in the day that had been at work all day and come "home" to find all of their belongings locked up. City Attorney Sperlazza arranged for board up crew to come out the next morning at 9AM to allow them to gather their belongings; Det Shaw goes out to meet them today at 9AM to escort them into the building, make sure everything is OK and safe. Detective Shaw updated Mr. Sperlazza via text all morning.

It is with great privilege to nominate Officer's Shaw, Cornett, Geis and Clinger for the Special Commendation Medal and Ribbon. The Officers all showed great perseverance, compassion and professionalism in accomplishing this mission. I further nominate City Attorney William Sperlazza for the Meritorious Public Service Award for his dedication and perserverance in shutting down this problem hotel.

NARRATION CONTINUED ON OTHER SIDE.

Hotel Closure Has Improved North Side Neighborhood, Residents Say

Updated: Jun 24, 2013 9:33 AM EDT

By: Mike Bowersock - email

COLUMBUS, Ohio - The Columbus Inn and Suites near state Route 161 and Interstate 71 was closed by the city about a week ago.

In just that short period of time, nearby residents say there is an obvious improvement.

Kelvin Walls, the president of the Northland Park Estates Civic Association. He says he lives a few miles from the hotel and says its closing led to changes almost immediately.

"Big difference," said Walls. "Noise level, traffic, the police runs, I have a friend of mine who also is on the police force and he kind of keeps me informed with the precinct we are in and we're in 18, and it definitely makes a big difference in this precinct."

The hotel had been a problem for the area for years, they had tried to get it shut down for years, and now, in a matter of ten days, the problems from the hotel seem to be going away.

Neighbors say what happened in the hotel affected the surrounding area.

"Drugs, prostitution, all kinds of different things go on, people actually live in there, short term stay or long term stay, there was all kinds of activities going on in there," said Walls.

Police officers say there were runs to the vacant hotel daily.
